

Our One-On-One Relationship is Supported By Hundreds.

I am pleased to announce my new affiliation with Linsco/Private Ledger (LPL), the nation's leading independent brokerage firm* with a national network of more than 6,500 independent investment professionals. Because LPL does not offer any proprietary products or maintain any investment banking relationships, I am free to choose the products and services that best meet my clients' needs - which helps to preserve the integrity of my investment advice.

My focus has been to provide investment advice and financial services to individuals and businesses in my local community. Please visit or call my office today.
